

The FCC has an essential role in ensuring that everyone can access the airwaves safely during reasonable family hours. The FCC has done an admirable job, and I want to encourage the FCC to uphold tradition and godly standards that people of all faiths agree.